Scottish Society of Physicians - 54th Annual Meeting

Skills Session for FY2 and CMT1 trainees
Suttie Centre for Medical Education, Aberdeen Royal Infirmary, Foresterhill
Friday 28th September 2012

Each skills session will be led by a consultant or a senior specialty registrar. Teaching will be scenario based including a short tutorial and practice in any relevant practical procedures. The session is designed for FY2 & CMT1 trainees and is excellent revision for day to day practice as well as MRCP (UK).

Programme

0900- 0920  Registration and Coffee

0920 - 1020  Cardiology: Dr Paul Broadhurst & Dr David Turpie
  • ECG workshop using clinical cases to demonstrate important ECG diagnoses and emphasising a systematic approach to ECG interpretation

1020 - 1120  Respiratory: Dr Graeme Currie
  • Case based teaching
  • Presentation and management of common respiratory emergencies
  • Illustrated examples drawn from real-life scenarios

1120 - 1140  Coffee

1140 - 1240  When to call a Rheumatologist: – Dr Paula Dospinescu & Dr Kanako Yoshida
  • Interactive case- based discussions including:
    - the management of acute arthritis
    - how to approach the patient on disease modifying antirheumatic drugs: important considerations?

How to apply:
http://events.rcpe.ac.uk/events/195/scottish-society-of-physicians---54th-annual-meeting

Registration: As places are limited, preference will be given to those FY2 and CMT1 trainees who register for the full Society meeting which will take place immediately after the Skills Session at Ardoe House Hotel, Aberdeen. Transport will be arranged between Suttie Centre and Ardoe House Hotel.